Syrah Vittoriano IGT 2015

An intriguing and versatile wine that already with its color, intense ruby red with a light purple vein, attracts attention, almost predicting the intensity of the fruit with which it is endowed. On the nose it is intense and deep, ripe cherry and plum are certainly the main olfactory notes, surrounded by a light vegetal note that manages to increase its freshness. Hints of black olive and green tea that guarantee complexity and varietal recognition. On the palate it is surprising its great drinkability, accompanied by an almost sweet softness, due to thick but velvety tannins and an acidity mature enough to guarantee elegance and precision, without entering the cloying but remaining very engaging. This Syrah is a wine that recalls red meat and large braised meats, drunk at a slightly lower temperature, 16 °C. , is an excellent accompaniment to boiled meat and vegetables.
